INHOFE HONORS EDUCATORS AT ROY CLARK ELEMENTARY

WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Sen. Jim Inhofe (R-Okla.) recently attended the 2011 National Community Schools Awards Ceremony to honor Roy Clark Elementary in Tulsa, Okla., the recipient of the 2011 Community Schools National Award for Excellence, for their continued success in the classroom.

“Today, I recognize the educators at Roy Clark Elementary for their dedicated service to teaching our youth,” said Inhofe. “This prestigious award showcases our teachers’ efforts to hold its young students to high academic standards. This is imperative for every student and their future success. I applaud the hard work by the educators at Roy Clark Elementary and their continued efforts to ensure the progress of all students.”
